December 2015

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. I recently celebrated another spiritual birthday. As I look back on the past twenty-five years, to say “God’s been good” is the understatement of the century. There’s been some ups and downs to be sure, but the ups have far outnumbered the downs.

Susan and I arrived home just before Thanksgiving and enjoyed a wonderful time with family and friends. I am preaching locally until we head west right around the beginning of January. Our schedule is very full, so we are looking forward to seeing the Lord do great and mighty things again in the coming year.

2015 was a year full of surprises, and some of them were not pleasant surprises. Still we have no complaints. The Lord has met our every need, souls have come to Christ, and we continue to add new churches to our itinerary. In late August, I had to leave New York City a week early to go to Toledo, Ohio, to bury my only sibling. My sister, Anita, went home to be with the Lord. It was bittersweet for me, but I got to preach the Gospel to a room full of folks who desperately needed to hear it. Five made professions of faith. I hope they meant it. I know the Lord meant it when He said “Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

The devil seems to fighting harder than ever to destroy not only our country, but churches and families as well. I know there is nothing new under the sun, but it seems as if the attacks have intensified as of late. I’m seeing things I never thought I’d see take place among professing Bible-Believers. Lost people don’t surprise me. They’re lost. I’m seeing “saved” people pull stunts that have thoroughly convinced me their little professions of faith are not going to get them to heaven. I am praying that God will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth before it is too late.

The book I wrote to get the Gospel to the motorcycle crowd continues to do pretty well. I get comments all the time via email, and testimonies from people that have given it to lost friends and co-workers. Well over seven hundred copies have made it into prisons, local jails, and juvenile detention facilities nationwide. Praise the Lord! It’s time for the sequel to be finished. It’s a little over half completed, the only hold up being me. Please pray that I would have the character to finish it.

Susan and I would like to thank all of you who pray for us, and support us financially. We could not do what God has called us to do without both.

Listening for the Shout!

Brother Dave

2 Corinthians 5:17

Food for thought: The word “trump” shows up twice in your King James Bible. First in I Corinthians 15:52, and secondly in I Thessalonians 4:16. Both are in reference to the Lord taking his Bride out of here. We seem to be hearing that word a lot lately in the news. Interesting.....

Looking for that Blessed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.....
