Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Jas 5:16

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Although our crowd is not real big on confessing our faults one to another, we are very aware of the importance of prayer. We know we need prayer, and we know we are to pray for each other.

In the last five years, I've seen prayer avail much in the life of a dear saint and Brother, Pastor Greg Rhinehart of Bible Believer's Baptist Church in Panama City, Florida. After being diagnosed with an untreatable cancer, Brother Greg was told to "set his house in order." Now I am not one of these categorically anti-medical community brothers. Lord knows, the VA has helped me tremendously through the years, but at the end of the day, sometimes the Lord uses the medical community and sometimes He doesn't. In Brother Greg's case, He didn't

Many prayed for Pastor Rhinehart then and he made a miraculous recovery. Well, the need has arisen again to pray fervently for him. His cancer has returned, as cancer sometimes does. He's a fighter, and so is his precious wife and soulmate, Debbie. A recent visit with them undoubtedly did more to strengthen our faith than Susan and I did to comfort them. Please keep them in prayer. Please.

Speaking of prayer, thank you to all that prayed for my hip surgery mentioned in the December prayer letter. The surgery went well and so did the re-hab. I thank the Lord continually for the pastors who graciously understood that I needed to cancel some meetings to get this done. I am also extremely thankful for the generosity of those who helped us financially through that time. God's people are the best, no doubt about it.

We've been back on the road for a month and have seen several men come to Christ in an Ohio prison, and several more in some church services. In Bismarck, North Dakota last month I prayed with three men to get saved after a service. Afterward I was informed one of them was a county sheriff's deputy, one was a Bismarck city cop, and one a corrections officer in the county jail. You can't make this stuff up. The convict leading cops to Christ. I love it!

In His service,

David and Susan Spurgeon
